John 18:36 “My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have been fighting, that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world.”

---

John 14:27 I’m going to leave you peace, but it’ll be my peace. Not the world’s peace!

JOHN ORTBERG: “Because a human being’s ultimate devotion belongs to the heavenly city, the claims of the earthly city are limited. This means the conscience of each individual becomes a kind of sanctuary. No king is able to claim the authority that belongs to God alone. There are things that are NOT Caesars.”

REMEMBER this? Philippians 4:7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

DIGGING DEEPER

Questions and reflections for your own personal or group study.

- 1) Can you relate to the “disappointment” of the Jews? Have you faced similar situations in your own life?
- 2) What circumstances in your life are you waiting for God to help with?
- 3) Did Jesus give any “hints” that he was not going to do what they expected? What were some of these? When you read the prophecy in Zechariah, what “hints” are there?
- 4) When Jesus is before Pilate and says, “My kingdom is not of this world?” what does He mean?
- 5) What is the difference between the “world’s peace” and the “peace of God?”
- 6) How do you find the “peace of God?”
- 7) What is the outcome of God’s peace? (Phil. 4:7)
